A prospectus has been received of the 'Internationale Zeitschrift für allgemeine Sprachwissenschaft,' to be edited by F. Techmer, of Leipzig, with the co-operation of many distinguished linguistic scholars, such as Ascoli, Bréal, Curtius, Ellis, v. der Gabelentz, Miklosisch, Friedrich Müller, Max Müller, Oppert, Pott, Sayce, Scheler, Steinthal, Storm. The American collaborators are Gatschet, März, and Trumbull. It is also understood that Professor Whitney's help has been secured. As will be seen by the names already mentioned, the different schools and tendencies of linguistic thought and research will be fully represented. The great divisions announced are the anthropological, embracing the physiology and the psychology of speech, and the historical, which will treat of the phylogenetic and ontological development of language. Messrs. B. Westermann & Co., New York, are the American publishers of this important and interesting addition to the existing organs of linguistics. It is to appear semi-annually. Subscription price 12 marks.

Advanced sheets of F. A. Brockhaus' Philological Catalogue have been received. Mr. Brockhaus, who is agent for the Journal in Germany, has issued the prospectus of a new edition of Du Cange's Glossarium Mediae et Infimae Latinitatis, edited by the French scholar L. Favre, to be published in 10 quarto volumes of about 600 pages each, to be issued in 100 fascicles. The price of each fascicle will be 300 francs, which will be reduced for the first five hundred subscribers to 200 francs, payment to be made upon the reception of each volume or each series of ten fascicles. Two volumes are to appear a year. The number of copies will be limited and the book will not be put to press until 250 subscriptions are received. Address F. A. Brockhaus, Leipzig. It is not necessary to emphasize the importance of this undertaking.
